SUMMARY

With an extensive background in computer science and a proven track record as a Backend Developer, I bring a unique combination of technical expertise and a passion for crafting innovative solutions. From my early coding experiences in junior high school to leading projects at PT Ragdalion Technology, including ones for manufacturing clients like PT Autoplastik Indonesia and PT NSK Bearings Manufacturing Indonesia, I have honed my skills in Node.js, TypeScript, Database design, and many more. Eager to contribute my skills to a dynamic team, I am excited about the prospect of leveraging my expertise to enhance system functionality and drive innovation within a forward-thinking organization.
